

BIRLA VIDYA NIKETAN
SESSION 2025-26
CLASS V
ENGLISH
ASSIGNMENT-2

- The Subject is the part of the sentence that tells who or what the sentence is about.
- The Predicate is the part that tells what the subject does or is.

 Example: The little girl is reading a book.

→ Subject: The little girl

→ Predicate: is reading a book.

A. Circle the subject and underline the predicate in the following sentences.

1. The bear sat with his head bowed down.
2. Niya, Diya and Riya went on a jungle safari.
3. Dan's laptop has not been working since yesterday.
4. A herd of elephants passed through the jungle.
5. Our teachers gave us homework.
6. The birds in the tree are chirping loudly.
7. Ram and Sia opened the door slowly.
8. The stars twinkled in the night sky.

B. Match each subject with the correct predicate.

Subject	Predicate
1. The baby	a. have gone out to play.
2. My grandparents	b. is sleeping peacefully.
3. The lion	c. live in a village.
4. The students	d. roars loudly.

C. Add a suitable predicate to complete each sentence.

1. The ferocious tiger _____.
2. My parents _____.
3. The gardener and the man _____.
4. This famous book _____.

Which witch is which?

Homophones-

which - interrogative pronoun (used to specify one or more items)

witch - noun (a magical being)

Tongue Twister – Which witch wished which wicked wish?

▪ VOCABULARY ENRICHMENT –

1. vivid – bright and clear
2. fragrant – sweet-smelling
3. gloomy – dark or sad
4. timid – shy or scared
5. majestic – grand and beautiful

▪ IDIOM

Apple of my eye

Meaning: a person who holds a special place in someone's heart.

Usage: My little sister is the apple of my eye because she always makes me smile.