READING COMPREHENSION

There was an old farmer who had worked hard all his life. He was very sick. He had three sons. He wanted them to be good farmers. He said to them, "There is a treasure in my land. Promise me that you will look for it."

Sadly, the father passed away. The sons looked for the treasure. They dug and dug the soil. "What will we find?" they said to each other.

Soon, they dug up all of their father's land but did not find any treasure. Tired and disappointed, the sons left the fields, unsure of what to do next.

But to their surprise, the crops began to grow. They sold the crops and made a lot of money. Now they knew what their father had meant by the great treasure. The sons worked hard on the land and lived happily ever after.

The moral of the story is... Hard work brings its own reward.
